Interview a Grown-Up: 12 Questions About Their Life

SD-B180 / THINKERS · AGES 13+

Pick a grown-up and ask them questions you have never asked before. Write what you learn.

YOU NEED: pencil, a grown-up to interview

Interviewing: _____ Date: _____ Interviewer: _____

1 What did you want to be when you were my age?

2 What was your very first job, and what did you learn?

3 What is a mistake you are glad you made?

4 Who was your hero growing up?

5 What was the best day of your life so far?

6 What scared you once that you now love?

7 What advice would you give your 13-year-old self?

8 What did you do for fun without screens?

9 What family story should I know?

10 What are you proud of that few people know about?

11 What has changed most since you were my age?

12 What is one thing you wish we did more together?

GROWN-UP GUIDE: Let the teen lead. Answer honestly and briefly, then let the follow-up questions flow. Teens often say these conversations are the part they remember. Keep the finished sheet as a family keepsake.
