Wacky Weather Report: A Mad-Lib Story

SD-B168 / DISCOVERERS · AGES 7–9

Fill in the word boxes first, then read your weather report out loud.

YOU NEED: pencil and a partner to read the story to

STEP 1: Fill in the words (don't peek at the story yet!)

1. silly animal	2. color	3. food	4. funny noise	5. body part
6. place	7. number	8. verb ending in -ing	9. adjective	10. your name

STEP 2: Read the report aloud

Good morning, I'm [10] with Channel [3]! Today's forecast: a [9] [2] cloud shaped like a [1] is floating over [6]. Expect [7] inches of falling [3], and a loud [4] from the east. Please keep your [5] covered, and no [8] outdoors until the sun comes back. Back to you in the studio!

STEP 3: Draw the weather you just made up

GROWN-UP GUIDE: Do not read the story first. Ask for each kind of word from the list, write it in, then read the finished report aloud together. Silly words make the best reports.
